This important annual event of the Grand Army circles at Columbus, Ohio, will be held on September 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 1913, next. The present ticket price is $1.75.

it will be the largest encampment ever held, it being estimated that at least 20,000 veterans will be in attendance. Preparations for the event are being rapidly pushed, and the people of Columbus will be ready to take care of the needs of the veterans.

The extent of the preparations is indicated by one of the camps, which is arranged to accommodate 30,000 men. The camp is situated on a tract of 600 feet in length, in which 4,500 men can be fed at one time. It will be lighted, supplied with Holly water, and have a telephone.

The Ohio State Journal has been selected by the Executive Committee of the National Association of Veterans of the encampment. A Committee of Registration will arrange to secure the most complete registration that has ever been made, and the Ohio State Journal has contracted to print the names as they are furnished. This will make a permanent record of the names of the veterans, as nothing like a perfect roster has ever been published. Now it is the duty of the veterans to contribute subscriptions to the Weekly are required to justify the expense, to print the roster complete after the encampment, and to contribute to the subscriber to the Weekly Ohio State Journal, which costs but $1 per year. The veterans are asked to contribute subscribers to let the publishers out on the expense, and it remains now to be seen how many there are that many old veterans who are ready to contribute for the preservation of the roster of 1883 is complete form.

The paper should be sent in, now as the paper is worth more than in 1905 to any family, and especially so to the veterans, who are so anxious to see the paper kept posted on the preparations for the encampment, which appears every week in the State Journal. The Ohio State Journal is the only paper in the country that publishes the names of the veterans.

3d: The process by which the active medicinal properties are secured.

The result is a medicine of unusual strength and curative power, which effects cures here to others unequalled. These peculiarities belong exclusively to Hood's Sarsaparilla, and
